“Several Graduates of the LifeWorks training have become brilliant hosts at our resort and at other properties throughout the market. Many of our directors, managers, and supervisors have volunteered their time to lead classes, mentor Students, review resumes, conduct mock interviews, and assist Students in finding employment.”

Darrell F. Carpenter, Jr.
Owner, Rugby Commercial Cleaning, LLC

“We’ve had tremendous success in hiring LifeWorks Graduates. It is very clear that they have a greater understanding of how their role and responsibilities impact the overall health of a company. These men and women are creating value for our organization.”

A PARTNERSHIP THAT’S TRANSFORMING COMMUNITIES

The Jobs Partnership is a faith-based, non-profit organization that collaborates with Churches, Community Resources, Educational Partners and Employers like you to transform lives and build a stronger workforce. Together we help the chronically underemployed overcome barriers to employment, address inappropriate work attitudes and behaviors, and become more productive in the workplace. This reduces employee turnover and provides a solution to the growing soft skills deficit.

As an Employer, you can recruit directly from our pool of LifeWorks Graduates. But as many of our Employers find, the real rewards come with their participation in the LifeWorks training as Instructors and Interview Coaches. You may also help design opportunities for specialized training that will increase our Students’ qualifications for your industry or service. And of course, many of our Employers are also Financial Supporters.
